SHIPPING POLICIES

Buyer arranges shipping and pickup. Final arrangements regarding shipping, and costs associated with shipping, are the responsibility of the buyer. Shipping is a contract between the buyer and the shipper. Any information provided here is in accordance with our Terms & Conditions of auction.

Items that are paid for in full may be picked up at our exhibition center by the winning bidders or their shippers. All winning lots must be picked up within 30 working days following the close of the auction. After 30 days, each lot will become subject to storage fees of not less than $5 per day.

Palm Beach Modern Auctions is not a party to the shipping contract. If at any time you need clarification of our policies, please do not hesitate to call or email our office.

Palm Beach Modern Auctions is not affiliated with any of the shippers on our list, nor do we endorse any of these companies. You are not required to use a shipper from our list, but please be advised that any shipper you choose must present a bill of lading/shipping document detailing the lot number(s) to be picked up and the destination address.

No items will be released for shipping until payment is received in full, including any applicable sales tax. All checks must clear before a lot will be released to a shipper.

PROVIDE A COPY OF THIS FORM TO YOUR CHOSEN SHIPPER

You may include this form with your payment or email it to info@modernauctions.com.

Notice to carriers and individuals picking up any purchases:

Shippers must arrive between 10:00 am and 4:00 pm EST and vehicles may not park directly in front of the parking lot entrance. PBMA staff members are not permitted to lift or move items in or out of our facility. Hired shippers and individuals must be prepared to disassemble, pack, or remove any merchandise, safely and without assistance from PBMA staff.

Item(s) will not be released without this signed authorization form from the invoiced buyer AND a bill of lading/shipping document detailing the lot number(s) to be picked up and the destination address.
